

Coffee Run Saturday July 17, 2010 Sean Leahy - Assistant Tourmeister

In our ever changing and expanding world, it is not so much the destination, but the Zen of how we get there. With that thought in mind, our second Coffee Run for 2010 is scheduled for Saturday July 17th.

Our gathering point will be Dan Jacob's Hairy Dog Grrrage ( special thanks to Dan & Donna for coffee & doughnuts). We will assemble at 8:30 a.m, sign release forms, have a brief driver and navigator meeting and be on the road by approximately 9:00a.m. We will be rolling through Woodbury, Bethlehem and Morris. A spirited jaunt through the scenic Litchfield Hills will bring us to our 1/2 way point and a pit stop in Kent.

Kent has a special buzz of it's own, being how it is a rest area for many a wayfarer, traveling on 4 wheels or 2. Last year I met a guy who drove his Tesla up from N.Y.C. Refreshments can include coffee or tea from the Kent Coffee Company or a not to be missed indulgence from Belgique Pa`tisserie and Chocolatier.

Once properly fortified we will "start 'em up" and enter into the multi-state foray of our outing. Passing through the Empire state, then back into Connecticut, a brief interlude through the Commonwealth and finally pursuing a course to our luncheon destination.

Based on the positive feedback that I received regarding the quality of the food and the service, I have decided that the Litchfield Saltwater Grille would be worthy of an encore luncheon (see menu below).

I invite all to mark Saturday July 17th on their calendars and join us, "/keep you eyes on the road, your hands on the wheel,/"

/yeah we're goin' to the roadhouse, gonna have a real good time,/"

/Let it roll baby roll"/

*Direction to Hairy Dog Grrrage:*
