Well it's time to think about Spring ! Reach under your car covers, loosen those trickle chargers, and shake off the remnants of that winter malaise. The Zone 1 Concours & Rally returns to CVR the weekend of May 14th & 15th. 2011.

Your destination on Saturday May 14th, is Southbury Connecticut, at the foot of the Litchfield Hills. You will have a choice of two renowned hotels for your overnight stay; the Heritage Hotel & Conference Center or the Crowne Plaza Hotel. Both are conveniently located with services you would expect from the very finest hotels.. Shuttle service between hotels, will be provided for your convenience on Saturday and Sunday. Your weekend begins with event registration Saturday morning at the Heritage Hotel, followed by the Rally preview, then you're off to match speed & wit against the tricks that are the Rallymaster's stock and trade. You can be assured your trip through the surrounding Litchfield Hills will be a memorable blend of unspoiled rural landscape, punctuated with challenging twists and turns and breathtaking vistas...all at no extra charge. Yes, it's all in good fun, and not to be missed is the Saturday evening cocktails & dinner held at the Crowne Plaza Hotel.

Sunday, May 15th is the Concours and it will be held near the Heritage Hotel. Both the Crowne Plaza and the Heritage Hotel will provide designated areas on Saturday and Sunday so the soap & hose brigade can work their magic.

For those of you who may want to explore the surrounding towns, nearby Woodbury, founded in 1673, retains the traditional appearance and ambiance of colonial New England, replete with historic homes and renowned antique shops. Looking for good food along the way, try Zagat recommended Good New Café or the traditional Curtis House Or try the coffee and lemon meringue tarts at the Ovens of France pastry shop at 660 Main Street. Even if you don't participate in the Saturday Rally the route takes drivers (about 45 minutes) into the quaint village of Kent, a not to be missed Rally half-way point, that is a vibrant meld of country life and bohemia.

Final schedule and sample concours score sheet for weekend will be emailed to participants. Heritage Inn (room block rate held until April 14):
